Mission Description

The D.C. Bar Pro Bono Center provides legal assistance to community-based nonprofit organizations and small business entrepreneurs serving low-income or economically disadvantaged communities.

Programs and Services

Small Business Brief Advice Legal Clinic offers one-on-one legal assistance to both aspiring and existing businesses. The topics covered include entity formation, corporate law, contract review or disputes, commercial leasing, employment law, intellectual property, and more. Currently, the Clinic holds monthly sessions that are generally in-person (walk-in), with approximately 3 virtual sessions (requiring pre-registration and advance intake) per year.

In addition, the Pro Bono Center has a robust educational component. At lawhelp.org/dc/npsb, small businesses can watch webinars on legal topics of all types, review written guides, read legal alerts on changes in the law that impact small businesses, and more.
