Mission Description

Rhode Island Main Street backs local businesses with marketing efforts, beautification projects, and engaging events that attract visitors, nurturing a flourishing, sustainable local economy. The program is managed by DC Squared, a community ecosystem development nonprofit organization in northeast DC that is dedicated to preserving community history through art, culture, and architecture while supporting and nurturing small businesses in neighborhood corridors.

Programs and Services

They provide customized one-on-one technical assistance to businesses, covering topics from branding to access to capital.

Community-led events and initiatives like DC2 Markets and Art All Night encourage local engagement and drives economic activity to the corridors.

Bladensburg Road Main Street also has a small business grant assistance available for businesses located within the Main Street program boundaries.
